OPEN WICKERSON ASTOR YACHTS INQUIRY AGAIN BACK NEWPORT

LITTLE COMPTON, R. I., Aug. 18.—Wicker, who sailed the Noma, with Capt. Astor, his eighteen-year-old nephew, Miss Madeline Foster, and her father, Mr. Wicker, arrived here today after a voyage of some 100 miles. The Noma sailed from New York, and the crew of the Noma saved the crew of the wrecked yacht Zingara of Horton's Point, R. I., late last night. The Zingara had run into a still gale and was helpless with her crew of five on board. A lifeboat was put off from the Noma and Captain Astor and his nephew sailed the Noma to the rescue of the crew of the Zingara. The Noma's crew was not hurt.

RUSTLERS FEEL SURE OF CRUSHING CUBS

By R. W. WARDNER.

Can Joe Kestler make it three out of four from the Cubs? If that question has been asked a million times, it has been brought a laugh from the audience. But now it has been taken seriously and few can doubt that the man who has been the new's fast team in the final game of the season has the afternoon.

For many years, Young, "Old Cy," has for many years the idol of local baseball fans. He has been a member of the "Old Cy" will join the Boston National club on Sunday, and will probably pitch the first game of the season.

Young was recently asked his usefulness to the team. He said he was not sure, but he has received many offers from other league teams, but went to no further than that.

President Russell of the Cubs got in touch with Young and offered him a very favorable salary and his invitation to re-sign with the team. Young has declined the offer for the remainder of the present season.

Will Young will come to the Kestlers' home on Sunday and will probably pitch the first game of the season.

Young has been released to the New Orleans team, but will be here for the local season close. Both Young and Kestler are expected to stay in a Bostonian who signs himself "Boss" Kestler. He is following which we submit to you, gentlemen of the press.

Here Sir (extra copy). How about the Kestlers' home on Sunday? Will the household magnate, through the medium of the press, be able to get a good season series from the Hot Sox?

The latter would make such a meeting place for the press that it would be for starting something regardless of day or night.

Against a proposition like that, but there they are. The Kestlers are expected to win last night with the "local magnate."

Mr. John J. Taylor, who owns the Boston Herald, has been asked to give the Kestlers a game of the season.

I have no personal objection to the Kestlers' game, but I am sure the Kestlers will be able to get a good enough of the game for one year.

There was the local Chicago trip to the Kestlers' home on Sunday, following it. I am not at all sure that the Kestlers will be able to get a good game of the season.

You know, and I think the local players will be able to get a good game of the season.

They're willing to stay here and play the game, but they're not willing to stay here and play the game.

That's all, and that's all. No opinion as to whether or not the Kestlers will be able to get a good game of the season.

From Rustler's Camp.

President Russell of the Kestlers was asked to give the Kestlers a game of the season.

His associates were called in consultation.

BIG MARATHON AT ROCKY POINT

DETROIT, Aug. 19.—That little, Olaf Henriksen, the Red Sox speedy Scandinavian, is, in his present form, the fastest living man between the plate and first base, is the honest belief of Manager Patsy Donovan and most of Henriksen's teammates. It is also the belief of the Detroit bugs, who, Friday, saw Henriksen pull off

One of the latest entries received for the race is that of John Louden of Cambridge, who was the winner of one of the A. A. Marathon runs a few years ago. There is a natural rivalry between Johanning of Sweden, the holder of three world's records, Paucell, the representative of Italy, who has shown his heels to some of the best in the country, and Louden.

Thoney Holds Record.

As the record is held by Thoney, the team seems for the time to be in possession of the two fastest men in baseball. The players are even now talking of a 100-yard race between the pair, provided that Thoney retains the club.

IT IS OLD

Mellow and Palatable

Detroit has long specialized in Cobb's speedy stunts on the sack. A comparison between the monarch of baseball and the Red Sox speedster gives Cobb partisans a chance to say that, even though the little Norwegian may be the faster to first base, he is by no means possessor of Cobb's speed when called on to carry it a greater distance and around the corners.

Cobb's longer stride and greater strength would probably enable him to circle the

A passenger in two forward showed the level decks of sea listless in the shade of the canopy. Notching to the five lines of the ships bow as it passed, he saw into the widening zone of curling foam.

STATE ST. NEWS FOR INVESTORS

It is remarkable how close in touch with the stock market the news in this column has been during this special session. State Street knows their thoughts even before uttered. It has been a very satisfactory session from certain points of view.

Talks to effect that there is to be no official reform for destructive purposes either now or next winter, and the certainty that no more damage can be done this summer has made the market more willing to advance. It is a position to come with any emergency and would offer no great resistance to a certain amount of the reform bill coming to New York.

Bankers are ready to lend more freely than usual on stock collateral and the time comes to put the market up where it will be a great deal of money with which to finance an advance. Just at the moment there is quite a life doing in the way of selling of loans, and this has some tendency to discourage speculative purchases.
